Sir,

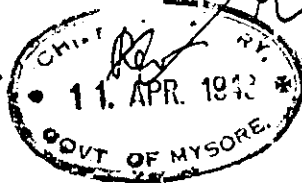

Reference my letter No. 56/3 dated 21-12-42.

Will you please let me know whether Government have given favourable consideration to my suggestion regarding grants of land to families of soldiers serving in the Indian Army etc.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,

E.G. Phythian-Adams
MAJOR,
CIVIL LIAISON OFFICER, MADRAS AREA.

2) In British India, lands to families of soldiers are abundantly being granted under the 'Grants for Soldiers' Scheme. Even here, the same may be done. Of course these persons are eligible, equally with others, for grants under the Scheme & it is possible that lands have already been granted to some. It

In cases where they can get the lands cultivated this month (as in the case of any lands which they may now hold) it would be helpful.
